With Regard to the Dame is a new play to celebrate Hampstead Garden Suburb's Centenary, depicting the life of Henrietta Barnett, the founder of Hampstead Garden Suburb.

The play is being performed by a group of actors and a production team especially brought together for this Centenary event.

Docu-drama in style, the play is a loving, warts-and-all look at the full and fascinating life of Henrietta Barnett. It includes a rich variety of the characters whose lives became involved with the Dame and – where possible – authentic, documented dialogue is used. The play covers her extraordinary life from her childhood to her old age.

The author and director, June Armstrong-Wright is a local resident with a long career as a writer, actress and broadcaster.
